Reality

Par Aaron Neville

Album : Humdinger

Even though we're apart

You're still right here in my heart

Your hands are still in mine

I can still hear you whispering words divine

I can feel your warm embrace

Just the thought of it puts a smile upon my face

But my imagination, whoa I said it's so strong

But reality keep assuring me I'm all alone

But now from my lips comes a song

With tears in my eyes

'Cuz now you're gone

So all your sweet talk

Even though we're apart

You're still right here in my heart

My imagination, oh I said it's so strong,

But reality keeps assuring me that I'm all alone

My imagination, oh so strong

But reality keeps assuring me that I'm all alone
