Princess Of The Dawn

Par Accept

Album : [L] Staying A Life

There's rain on the mountain

A white frost on the moors

It's an epoch of eternity

Waters touch the holy shore

It's a land of mystery

The world of unseen eyes

You can feel the shadow of a princess

She waits for you inside

The guardians of God play the pawns

Beg for mercy - hail the queen

Princess of the Dawn

In the war of the dragons

Young blood ran it's course

They fell to his blade

The knight Iron Horse

A forgotten priest

Disappearing in the haze

A chamber of vestal virgins

Twilight is her slave

The Wizard of Oz moved the pawns

Life for Satan - dust to dust

Princess of the Dawn

On the day of the testament

The seventh moon was raging fire

Heaven cried for the sacrifice

The midnight sun was rising higher

The Beauty and the Beast

Lies in her royal crypt

Her kiss is bitter sweet

Death upon her lips

The Holy Grail held the pawns

Kings and bishops bow to grace

Princess of the Dawn

The guardians of God play the pawns

Beg for mercy - hail the queen

Princess of the Dawn

A new day dawns for heaven and earth

A first sunbeam is killing the night

Once upon a time for ever more

The gloom with the spirit of that Lady in White

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn

Princess - Princess - Princess of the Dawn
