Love for Sale (Bonus Track) [Remastered]

Par Ace of Base

Album : [1995].The Bridge (Remastered)

Oh-oooh, yeah

If you walk in the red light at night

In the black velvet hour

If you look, you will see their delight

They're the purest of flowers

They've got love for sale

The money they earn when everybody wants them

Money for pleasure, pleasure and pain

They've got love for sale

Money, sex addicted to drugs

Pleasure and pain, together they walk

Money, sex addicted to drugs

Pleasure and pain, together they walk

What they get is addicted to drugs

To ease all their sorrows

What they get is addicted to drugs

To ease all their sorrows

They've got love for sale

The money they earn when everybody wants them

Money for pleasure, pleasure and pain

They've got love for sale

Illusions for your mind (illusions for your mind)

They are just illusions for your mind (just illusions for your mind)

Illusions for your mind (illusions for your mind)

They are just illusions for your mind (just illusions for your mind)

Oh-oooh, yeah

Money, sex addicted to drugs

Pleasure and pain, together they walk

Money, sex addicted to drugs

Pleasure and pain, together they walk

They've got love for sale

The money they earn when everybody wants them

Money for pleasure, pleasure and pain

They've got love for sale

Illusions for your mind (illusions for your mind)

They are just illusions for your mind (just illusions for your mind)

Illusions for your mind (illusions for your mind)

They are just illusions for your mind (just illusions for your mind)
