Favourite Fallen Idol

Par Adorable

Album : Footnotes 92-94

When I fail, I want to fail completely

And when I fall, I want to do it neatly

Travelling side by side

All due haste to my demise

Flickering in firelight

I'm gonna burn like Joan tonight

Oh, this is the angel's sound

With wingtips singed

You're surely heaven bound

I'm only falling now just to entertain you

I'm only failing here, because there's little else to do

Underwater, coming up for air

Wallow in self-pity and despair

Well, I haven't got a care

I've gotta do my hair

I've gotta do my hair

With wingtips singed

You're surely heaven bound

Oh, your fallen idol

Oh, you're my favorite fallen idol

I'm only falling to entertain you

I'm only falling just to entertain you

I'm only falling just to entertain you
