Barely Hangin' On

Par A-Ha

Album : Minor Earth Major Sky

I used to be so sensible on my own

Now I'm so sensitive it's a joke

I'm getting by on decibels like a drug

And greet every brand-new day with a shrug

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I used to be so comfortable in a suit

Almost presentable next to you

I used to be so confident in a crowd

Now I can't say my own name aloud

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

And now I guess you're wondering why

We never could see eye to eye

Oh, but never mind

And now I guess it's hard to see

What has gotten into me

Oh, but never mind

Oh, but never mind

Oh, but never mind

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on, yeah

I'm barely hanging on

I'm barely hanging on
