Album : Digital Works

Life is like a big merry-go-round

You're up and then down

Going in circles trying to get to where you are

Everybody's been cutting you out

But where are they now

Sitting in the same old place just faces in the croud

We all make mistakes

You might fall on you're face

But you gotta get up

I'd rather stand tall

Then live on my knees

'Cause I am a conquerer

And I won't accept defeat

Stop telling me no

One thing about me

Is I am a conquerer

I am a conquerer

Ohh

Oh ohh ohh 2x

I am a conquerer

We all make mistakes

You might fall on you're face

But you gotta get up

We all make mistakes

You might fall on you're face

Don't ever give up!

I rather stand tall

Then live on my knees

'Cause I am a conquerer

And I won't accept defeat

Stop telling me no

One thing about me

Is I am a conquerer

I am a conquerer

Ohh Ohh

oh oh ohh ohh I am a conquerer

oh
