Gone Crazy

Par Alan Jackson

Album : High Mileage

Here I am alone again tonight

In this old empty house

Its hard to learn what you don't think you need

That you can't live without

Never leave the sound of the telephone

But ever since you left

I've been gone

Gone crazy

Going out of my mind

I've asked myself the reasons

Atleast a thousand times

Going up and down this hall way

Trying to leave the pain behind

Ever since you left

I've been gone

Never saw your face this many times

When you were really here

Things you said I never understood

Now crystal clear

Never spent this much time alone

But ever since you left

I've been gone

Gone crazy

Going out of my mind

I've asked myself the reasons

Atleast a thousand times

Going up and down this hall way

Trying to leave the pain behind

Ever since you left

I've been gone

I've been gone

Gone crazy

Going out of my mind

I've asked myself the reasons

At least a thousand times

Going up and down this hallway

Trying to leave the pain behind

Ever since you've left me

I've been gone

I've been gone

I've been gone

I've been gone

(Gone)

Gone

I've been gone

(Gone)

I've been gone
