Through The Night

Par Alohaii

Album : SUMMERTIDE

The city sleeps while we explore the bay

The harbor sleeps but we are wide awake

This town will be the death of me

You said that I'm just grumblng

Won't let them get the best of me

You said I'm on my own

Wishing that you'd see the world my way

'Cause if you did, we'd escape

Sing yeah, yeah, yeah

Feeling fine and we're riding through the night

All on our own again

We're singing yeah, yeah, yeah

Out of time as the sun begins to rise

No turning back to them

Let's burn it down if there's something in the way

And we can make it loud, hear it time and time again

Let's join the crowd, lose the words I meant to say

And we can make them proud, carry on another day

Through the night, let's run away (let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

Yeah, yeah, yeah (let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

But what for? You'll forget (let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

Let's get up, not upset (let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

Relax, you're so attached

To all the meaningless ways of the past

This town will be the death of me

You said that I'm just grumbling

Won't let them get the best of me

You said I'm on my own

Wishing that you'd see the world my way

'Cause if you did, we'd escape

Sing yeah, yeah, yeah

Feeling fine and we're riding through the night

All on our own again

We're singing yeah, yeah, yeah

Out of time as the sun begins to rise

No turning back to them

Let's burn it down if there's something in the way

And we can make it loud, hear it time and time again

Let's join the crowd, lose the words I meant to say

And we can make them proud, carry on another day

Through the night, let's run away (let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

(Let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

(Let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

(Let's run away, ooh, let's run away)

Sing yeah, yeah, yeah

Feeling fine and we're riding through the night

All on our own again

We're singing yeah, yeah, yeah

Out of time as the sun begins to rise

No turning back to them

Let's burn it down if there's something in the way

And we can make it loud, hear it time and time again

Let's join the crowd, lose the words I meant to say

And we can make them proud, carry on another day

Through the night, let's run away
