Better Love

Par Andrew Lampa/K!llx/Aleesia

Album : Better Love

Eyes closed

They say love can be blind

But I'm seeing the signs in you

You're ice-cold

The way you play with my mind

'Til I drink you like wine, I do

'Cause every time I say that it's over

My head is like na, na, na, na, na, no

Na, na, na, need you close

But all my heart you're walking all over

My head is like na, na, na, na, na, no

How did I forgive you

Head spinning 'round and 'round

Gotta give it up, give it up

Gotta give it up, give it up now

We're always crashing down 'til we pick it up, pick it up

So enough is enough, we need a better love

I'll run

Tryna save my broke heart

Way be better apart, it's true (oh, it's true)

So get it done

But then I think of the spark

The fire lit up my dark with you (dark with you)

'Cause every time I say, that it's over

My head is like na, na, na, na, na, no

Na, na, na, need you close

But all my heart you're walking all over

My head is like na, na, na, na, na, no

How did I forgive you

Head spinning 'round and 'round

Gotta give it up, give it up

Gotta give it up, give it up now (whoo, whoo, whoo)

We're always crashing down 'til we pick it up, pick it up

So enough is enough, we need a better love

Nothing left between us

Nothing to say, no other way for you and me

Nothing can redeem us

There's nothing to say, no other way, now I see

Oh, now I see

Oh, now I see

Oh, now I see

Head spinning 'round and 'round

Gotta give it up, give it up

Gotta give it up, give it up now (give it up now, oh-oh)

We're always crashing down 'til we pick it up, pick it up

So enough is enough (whoa), we need a better love

Better Love

We gotta keep it down

Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah

So enough is enough

We need to find a better love
