Album : Lullabies For Eternal Sleep EP

Can we expect more of this?

Particles of hope lost in seas of disillusion

Loved ones are now long forgotten

Fade in time, they lost every, every meaning they had

This life has blessed us with strictly nothing

A lifetime to endure this pain over again

This life has blessed us with strictly nothing

A lifetime to endure this pain over and over again

Can we experience every nuance of this pitiful existence?

Abducted by the void

Abducted by the void

Abducted by the void

Abducted by the void

Abducted by the void

Abducted by the void
