Exiled From Earth

Par Arch Enemy

Album : Deceivers

We're standing face to face

With a century of mistakes

Our coup de grâce, our exodus

Embers, coal and rust

We'll never

We'll never learn

This time there's no return

Now we are nomads

With nowhere to go

Exiled from Earth

Racing extinction

Sapiens' deathblow

Once kings, now cursed

Folded time to meet our end

Murdered our only home

Too proud to comprehend

Now Gaia reclaims her throne

We are all

We're all condemned

Back into the primordial soup, we descend

Now we are nomads

With nowhere to go

Exiled from Earth

Racing extinction

Sapiens' deathblow

Once kings

Once kings, now cursed

Now we are nomads

With nowhere to go

Exiled from Earth

Racing extinction

Sapiens' deathblow

Once kings

Once kings, now cursed
