Love All The Hurt Away

Par Aretha Franklin & George Benson

Album : Emotion Collection Arm In Arm [Disc 2]

Ooh, ooh, ah-yeah

Mm, ooh-ooh, oh-oh, baby

Ooh, baby, ooh, baby

Sing the song now, yeah

I see myself in your face, a reflection of pain

Somebody made you cry over and over again

Still, you and I made it through all of this for a reason (yes, we did)

Could it be that we created affair for all seasons?

'Cause you and I were meant to be lovers

The search is over for us, there's no other

We're finally at the rainbow's end

Baby, together we'll mend all the cracks in our heart

And just love all the hurt away (love the hurt away)

Ooh (ooh)

Woman, you are the thing that I hoped, and I prayed for (mm)

You give your love, and I'm happy like never before (love it, I love it)

You'll be my strength, and I'll be your shoulder to lean on (you can lean on my shoulder)

We'll build a world and fill the whole place with our love songs

'Cause you and I were meant to be lovers

The search is over for us, there's no other

We're finally at the rainbow's end

Baby, together we'll mend all the cracks in our heart

And all the hurt away

Oh, baby (yeah-yeah)

With no one here

We're lover, oh

'Cause you and I were meant to be lovers

The search is over for us, there's no other

We're finally at the rainbow's end

Baby, together we'll mend all the cracks in our heart

And just love all the hurt away (love the hurt away)

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

Oh-oh-oh, oh, oh

Oh-oh-oh, yeah-yeah

Love the hurt away-ay-ay (oh-oh, oh)

Love all the hurt away

Love the hurt away-ay-ay

Yes, we're goin' to love (we're gon' love, baby)

We're goin' to love all the hurt away, baby (we're gonna love, love, love, love)

We're goin' to love (love all our hurt, yeah-yeah)

Love the hurt away-ay-ay (yeah-yeah)

Love the hurt away, ooh (ooh, yeah)

Oh, baby, oh, baby (love all the hurt away)

Love the hurt away-ay-ay
