Fluorescent powder flying softly through the air

Angel sighs surround me

Seems like it's been forever

Think I just need a moment

Sorry, I need reminding

I've never been so good at trying

Please don't leave me behind

We've become what we never wanted

Just like water, we fall

She won't believe it's love

Oh no, she won't believe

He won't believe in love

Oh no, he won't believe

Cloud of confusion flutters softly beneath

I ignore all the urges inside me

Holding myself so still

Don't even feel the glow

Your sunlit smiles believing

I'm never all that good at lying

Nothing I see here is mine

We always do what we never mean to

The worlds we build they fall

She won't believe it's love

Oh no, she won't believe

He won't believe in love

Oh no, he won't believe

Go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

Go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

We'll go down, down, down

She won't believe it's love

He won't believe it's love

Oh no, he won't believe

She won't believe it's love

He won't believe it's love

She won't believe it's love

He won't believe it's love
