Jesus Slaves [Explicit]

Par Bad Wolves

Album : Disobey [Explicit]

You know that blame shits getting old

You keep assuming again

Another trace unfolds when the moon is full again

A silver bullet painted gold

Another trapped in the sand

'Cause even Jesus can't save us, baby

Even Jesus can't save

Even Jesus can't save

Even Jesus can't save us, baby

So when the walls are weakened

And the witches burn

Now tell me couldn't you face it

When you start to turn

Heating up with the coals

Does a dance for the dead

I never wish it cold

When the moon is full again

And live alone with your bones

Another thrown me a death

'Cause even Jesus can't save us baby

Even Jesus can't save

Even Jesus can't save

Even Jesus can't save us baby

So when the walls are weakened

And the witches burn

Now tell me couldn't you face it

When you start to turn

Jesus saves

Jesus slaves

Jesus saves

Jesus

Slaves

So when the walls are weakened

And the witches burn

Now tell me couldn't you face it

When you start to turn

So when the walls are weakened

And the witches burn

Now tell me couldn't you face it

When you start to turn

Jesus saves

Jesus slaves

Jesus saves

Jesus

He slaves

Ja ja ja ja ja ja ja, Jesus he slaves
