Love Won't Wait

Par Bobby Caldwell

Album : Bobby Caldwell

When the lights are low

How can you resist

When I kiss your ear?

I would like to know

If you've always felt

The way I'm feeling, dear

There's just one chance

For you and I

Let's make romance

Don't let love slip by

You will regret

When the lights are low

How can you pretend
That you just don't care?

Darling, can't you see
There is love for me
In your heart somewhere?

Don't let love

Slip through your hands

No, sweet darling

Don't spoil my plans

Please, don't hesitate
As my love won't wait for you

Oh, now, love won't wait

Oh, don't you hesitate

How can you resist

A tender kiss? I love you

Darling, love won't wait

Oh, don't you hesitate

In my love you'll find

There is happiness for you

Don't let love

Slip through your hands

Oh, sweet darling

Don't spoil my plans

Don't you hesitate

'Cause my love won't wait for you

Oh, now, love won't wait

Oh, don't you hesitate

How can you resist

A tender kiss? I love you

Darling, love won't wait

Don't you hesitate

In my love you'll find

There is happiness for you
