Christopher Says

Par Brenda Kahn

Album : Hunger

christopher says:

"I won't be needing you

the light was nice, and the food was fine," but I remember the food was wine and the light was dim...

oh, do you know when you're in love?

I think you do

christopher says:

"watch the trucks go by
they will clear your head and take you far...
and I could love you like a violin
my fingers racing 'cross your skin,"

oh, do you know when you're in love?

I think you do

christopher says:

"I see in black and white and you'd look fine in a box and I didn't know that you were blue... and what could I do?"

and christopher says:

"there was a girl I loved
an angel in my heart; she was a perfect dove and I would have thrown myself to sea...
if only she'd loved me,"

and christopher says:

"I won't be needing you

the sun is shining grey and I think you've done your best now, get up and get dressed,"

oh, do you know when you're in love?

I think you do

oh...
