Don't Blame Love

Par Bruce Carroll

Album : Speed of Light

Was it only yesterday you walked down the aisle

Never thinking he'd walk out on you

I know your heart's been broken and you need to cry awhile

And though your world's been shattered

There's one thing you shouldn't do

Don't blame love

Love will never hurt you

It never will desert you

That's the one thing you can trust

Don't blame love

In spite of human nature

Do your heart a favor

Don't give up

And don't blame love

For 49 tender years she laid by your side

A golden anniversary on the way

But now your bed's half empty, it's been six months since she died

Though it's hard to find a reason or live another day

Don't blame love

Love will never hurt you

It never will desert you

That's the one thing you can trust

Don't blame love

In spite of human nature

Do your heart a favor

Don't give up

And don't blame love

One thing we can count on is love will shine for us again

And lead us through the darkness like a long lost friend

No, don't blame love

'Cause love will never hurt you

It never will desert you

That's the one thing you can trust

Don't blame love

In spite of human nature

Do your heart a favor

Don't give up

Don't blame love

Don't blame love

No, don't blame love
