My Shine

Par Childish Gambino

Album : Camp

Runnin' through the moment as the sun goes down

And all I ever wanted was to hear that sound

I stunt hard

I make it work (Yeah)

I make it work (Yeah)

I live large

I make it work (Yeah)

I make it work (Yeah)

Chyeah

Childish Gambino, lame niggas never heard of it
Sickboy is the crew, fuck these niggas with a dirty dick
When these motherfuckers gonna understand I'm serious?
I'm hard in the paint like I fuck her on a period
James Dean swag, leather jacket, white t-shirt
Rolled-up sleeves, nigga lookin' like a greaser
Word is born, baby, my dictionary's in labor
Listen to the Culdesac and know that was an ultimatum
Man, why nobody wanna admit they like me just a little bit?
Won't be on the Freshmen list, guess I'll just keep spittin' shit
Never be the rapper with six hundred dollar shades
No iced-out chain, Rod Lavers all day
I was hopin' they would see me just for me, dope rhymer
They do me like my first house, no co-signer
See you usin' qualifiers, you don't even know
"I guess he good for a rapper who on a TV show!"
Even though, I was rappin' back when Lance had chemo, ho
Even flow, Pearl Jammin' niggas can't leave me alone
I keep a bone for these girls who liked me back when green was low
Feel me, though, DVR my thoughts and make your TiVo grow

Runnin' through the moment as the sun goes down

(Starlight, starlight)

And all I ever wanted was to hear that sound

(All night, all night)

But it's all for you to prove it

Keep on movin', keep on usin'

My shine

My shine, my shine

Oh-uh-a-oh

Ooh, take me higher (Higher, higher)

(Oh)

Ooh, take me higher (Higher, higher)

Gambeezy make it work somethin', let me check the syntax

Don't add an eezy to my name, 'cause it has never been that

Aladdin on you fuckers, prince of the game from streetrat

Dudes fall off, too steep like tea bags

Steady movin', don't worry about where I'ma be

'Cause I'ma be on these tracks like indie girls on Amelie

Honesty, I'm rappin' 'bout everything I go through

Everything I'm sayin', I'm super sayin' like Goku

Fuck nerdcore, fuck backpack

Fuck rap cool, I make cool rap

I make music for wack blacks to blast back

In fact, I swear the track I lie on's my last track

Runnin' through the moment as the sun goes down

(Starlight, starlight)

And all I ever wanted was to hear that sound

(All night, all night)

But it's all for you to prove it

Keep on movin', keep on usin'

My shine

My shine, my shine

Oh-uh-a-oh

Runnin' through the moment as the sun goes down

(Starlight, starlight)

And all I ever wanted was to hear that sound

(All night, all night)
