Hard To Find

Par Chris Norman

Album : Chris Norman - Crossover

Feel so good, you know feel so high

Oh, I could leap up and just touch the sky

Yeah, true love is hard to find

Oh, but I wanna try

Yeah, I wanna try

They say life ain't easy

Well, I know that's true

Well I got sunshine in the morning

But I ain't got you.

Well true love is hard to find

Oh, but i wanna try

Oh I wanna try

And I'm looking for someone

Oh! Not just anyone in any old way. Oh, and I wanna be in love

Love

Love

Yeah, I wanna be in love

I'm shedding my shoes

And walking on sea shells, and

If I had you

I'd never want no one else

No one else

No one else

Woke up in the morning

And I fell out of bed

And i thought

I'd just throw some water on my weary head.

And now true love is hard to find

Oh, but I wanna try

Yeah, I wanna try

Oh! And I hope someday

Yeah, I just wanna girl to come my way

Cos I just wanna be in love love love

Yeah I wanna be in love

I'm shedding my shoes and walking on sea shells,

And if I had you I'd never want no one else

No one else

No one else

Oh! And I hope someday

Yeah, I just wanna girl to come my way

Cos I just wanna be in love

Love

Love

Yeah I wanna be in love 2x

I'm shedding my shoes and walking on sea shells,

And if I had you

I'd never want no one else

No one else

No one else

True love is hard to find
