Quiet

Par Clara Luzia

Album : Railroad Tracks

This is a chair and here's the table

We can sit down and see what we're able to admit

I've got a pen and you've got the paper

Both got a mouth but no words to weave it

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here

But I can hear it in the back

And between the lines

All the luggage that you brought

From far away to here

But you'll hear it in the back

And between the lines

All the luggage that you brought

From far away to here

And it's so damn loud in here

It's so damn loud in here

And it's so damn loud in here

It's so damn loud in here

Silence won't save us and

Words will not rescue us

But remembrance is the secret of redemption

Remembrance is the secret of redemption

Remembrance is the secret of redemption

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here

And it's so damn quiet here

It's so damn quiet here
