Dungarvan Bay

Par Cliffords

Album : Dungarvan Bay

There is a light in Dungarvan Bay

Never goes out and it never fades

If the Earth could stop spinning

I'd gather my thoughts, imagine life without you in it

If the Earth would give me a minute

I'd smile and thank god you were in it

Not sure if I'm living at all

Not how you could 'fore it all went wrong

I'll search for the pockets of you

Bless the orange sky, you got quite the view

Time moves on, it's two years now

Alex moved to Edinburgh, I stayed south

I still picture you dancing when I'm out

Take it day by day, what's that all about?

Not sure if I'm living at all

Not how you could 'fore it all went wrong

I'll search for the pockets of you

Bless the orange sky, you got quite the view

Well I'm not sure if I'm living at all

Not how you could 'fore it all went wrong

I'll search for the pockets of you

Bless the orange sky, you got quite the view

Oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-oh

There's a light in Dungarvan Bay
