Gemini And Leo

Par Colosseum II

Album : Strange New Flesh [1987, Castle, CLACD 104]

I'm told that Gemini and Leo are very very strong

No matter how hard I try I can't prove them wrong

Faith in two people born in a certain time

Water will turn to wine

Our world is searching for the secret of our heavenly friends

No matter how hard I try, the searching has no end

Whether we care or not our lives are in their view

The stars shine down on you

But they keep saying that it can't be done

Happiness won't last for anyone

Laughter means there's crying

Every day of happiness means one of pain owing

But they keep saying that it can't be done

Happiness won't last for anyone

Laughter means there's crying

Every day of happiness means one of pain owing

I'm told that Gemini and Leo are very very strong

No matter how hard I try I can't prove them wrong

Have faith in two people (born in a certain time)

Have faith in two people (born in a certain time)

Have faith in two people

Have faith in two people

Have faith in two people

Water will turn to wine
