Par Concrete Knives

Album : Be Your Own King

You wallpaper man, come from another land

Oh, oh, oh please leave me now!

Your soul is like a blow

Yeah it's gonna make you grow

Oh, oh, please leave me now!

Drawing shadows on my wall

I remember the day we fall

Oh, oh, oh, I regret now!

That day we made a pact

I know I can't retract

Oh, oh, I regret now!

I won't let the nights,

Steal and waste my mind, aha

I'll borrow the sun

'till the story's done, aha

Aha, aha, aha

When I'm close to you, it's only me and you

Oh, oh, oh it's scary now!

I tried to be bright

I tried to catch the light

Oh, oh, it's scary now!

I know where the devil is

I know where the devil is

I know where the devil is

I know where the devil's around I won't let the nights

Steal and waste my mind, aha

I'll borrow the sun 'till the story's done, aha!

I won't let the night steal and waste my mind

I'll borrow the sun 'till the story's done!
