Typing

Par ???(Coulson Fan)

Album : Typing

You used to text like fireworks

Now I'm watching your dot just blink

Three bubbles then nothing

Guess I'm back to guessing what you think

You said you're not into games

Just "bad at phones" or "lost in thought"

But your last online was midnight and my name just fell off your plot

You move like gravity

Then float off like air

Said "you're different"

I just didn't know where

Now I'm stuck on "typing..."

Like I'm the one who begged

Wasn't it you who leaned in first

And said I made you feel safe?

I don't chase slow replies

They don't taste like care

You turned "good morning" into a message I don't dare

You liked every post I made except the one that asked "be honest"

Funny how you read me daily but your heart's still set to "cautious"

You kissed like it meant the world then vanished like a test run

What's with these soulmates

That time out after the fun?

I've seen this plot

Flash start, ghost end

You say "it's not you"

I say "cool, it depends"

Now I'm stuck on "typing..."

But no words ever land

You built a bridge with fire

Then left me holding sand

You said "don't overthink it"

But I read between the lines

Even silence has a meaning

And yours sounds a lot like "goodbye"

They love the chase but not the arrival

They love the echo but not the reply

They say "I felt it" but never "I stayed"

They want your attention but not the weight

They flirt like fire then vanish like breath

They crave your softness but fear what's left

They want deep souls just not the depth

Say "don't get attached" then beg for respect

Now I'm stuck on "typing..."

While you post quotes 'bout space

You wrote poems in my DMs then erased your trace

I won't beg for context

Or decode delay

Just remember you paused

And I walked away

I won't reply (ooh)

I won't reply

I won't replay

I won't replay

I won't replay (I won't replay)

I won't replay

I won't replay

I won't replay

I won't replay
