Catherine Wheels

Par Crowded House

Album : Together Alone (Deluxe Edition) CD1

No night to stay in

Bad moon is rising again

Dice rolls

And you burn

Come down, I fear

As that cold wheel turns

I know what I know

Sad Claude's been sleeping around

To stroke the right nerve

Whose needs do I serve

As Catherine's wheel turns?

She was always the first to say, "Gone"

She's got her Catherine wheels on

Always the first to say, "Gone"

Go kindly with him

To his blind apparition

Whose face creases up

With age gone grey

He'll be back here one day

She was always the first to say, "Gone"

She's got her Catherine wheels on

Always the first to say, "Gone"

She's got her Catherine wheels on

Wheels on (ooh)

Catherine wheels, Catherine wheels

Catherine wheels

She's gone

Vanished in the night

Broke off the logic of light

He woke

Tore the covers back

Found he was empty inside

So they were told

When the moon would rise

The best time to leave with your soul

She's gone

But towards the light

Watching her whole life unfold, oh

Bruises come out dark

So strong was his hold on her

Regarded by some as his slave

He spoke as in a stranger's tongue

Despair us and drive you away, hey

Bruises come out dark
