Wait

Par Cynthia Alexander

Album : Insomnia & Other Lullabyes

I, I, I want to be

I, I, I want to be

I have waiting so long, waiting so long

To be myself, be myself

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

It's my face but it's not me

In the mirror that I see

It's my voice, what did I say?

I don't know why I'm falling

I'm falling

Oh, I don't know why

Why I have to wait

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

It's on my hands, what do I have?

I have nothing, I am empty

I am full, full of

Full of nothing

I am falling

Oh, I don't know why

Why it is I have to wait

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

Wait, wait

Wait, wait

I, I, I want to be

I, I want to be

I have waiting so long, waiting so long

To be with you, be with you

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

Waiting so long

It's on my ears, I hear a time ticking

Like a deity, I tear on the candle drip

I hear a ugly time

You make me wait, you make me wait

You can see me run till here I am

I am falling

Oh, I don't know why

I'm falling

Oh, I don't know why

Why it is you make me wait

Waiting so long

Wait, wait

Wait

Wait, wait
