BITTER (Paused)

Par DACEY

Album : BITTER

Be my love was what I wanted you to say

Lift me up, instead you led me astray

It's prolly time that you figured out

Found someone new, someone better

Someone from the crowd

It's prolly time that you figured out

You was fuckin' rebound

I'm doin' better now

I could get back at ya if I just tried

I can find any lover closing my eyes

I could get back at ya if I just tried

Get someone like you who'd be rolling the dice

Movin' on, boy, you made your mind up late
'Cause all you are is another weight of mistake
He said he wanna see me midnight
I give him some and we took it to the sunrise
Yeah, he know I'm good for it
He said, "Baby, we can only move forward"

I could get back at ya if I just tried

I can find any lover closing my eyes

I could get back at ya if I just tried

Get someone like you who'd be rolling the dice

I was just thinking about us, it's late
You're so close, yet so far away
Was just thinking about us, it's late
Got to give you up

Bitter

It's been a long time since I saw you face
It's been a long time since I heard you say my name
It's been a long time since I held you, babe
It was the last time since you let me slipped away

I don't wanna play and rewind

Been sitting on my own, I'll be fine

I'm just gonna wait for someone

It's hard to give away what's undone

I don't wanna play and rewind

Been sitting on my own, I'll be fine

I'm just gonna wait for someone

It's hard to give away what's undone
