Man On The Run [With Cerf Mitiska & Jaren]

Par Dash Berlin

Album : The New Daylight

You stole a kiss

And stole my heart

Made me a fool right from the start

Wouldn't have been so bad except

This little plan it fell apart

If I were you

I'd dare not speak

I'd run like hell

In hopes of seeing tomorrow

It's such a travesty

The way you say our love should be

Yeah, such a tragedy

Think you can just break my heart and leave me

Well, you better run now

Man on the run

Playing for fun

Wind me up

Leave me undone

It's such a travesty

The way you say our love should be

Yeah, such a tragedy

Think you can just break my heart and leave me

Well, you better run now

Man on the run

Playing for fun

Wind me up

Leave me undone

If I were you

I'd dare not speak

I'd run like hell

In hopes of seeing tomorrow

It's such a travesty

The way you say our love should be

Yeah, such a tragedy

Think you can just break my heart and leave me

Well, you better run now

Man on the run

Playing for fun

Wind me up

Leave me undone
