Strange Overtones

Par David Byrne & Brian Eno

Album : Everything That Happens Will Happen Today

I wake up every morning

I hear your feet on the stairs

You're in the next apartment

I hear you singing over there

This groove is out of fashion

These beats are 20 years old

I saw you lend a hand to

The ones out standing in the cold

Strange overtones

In the music you are playing

I'll harmonize

It is strong and you are tough

But a heart is not enough

Put on your socks and mittens
It's getting colder tonight
A snowball in my kitchen
I watched it melt before my eyes

Your song still needs a chorus

I know you'll figure it out
The rising of the verses
A change of key will let you out

Strange overtones

Though they're slightly out of fashion

I'll harmonize

I see the music in your face
That your words cannot explain

Strange overtones

In the music you are playing

We're not alone

It is strong and you are tough

But a heart is not enough

Strange overtones

In the music you are playing

I'll harmonize

It is strong and you are tough

But a heart is not enough
