Bludsucker

Par Deep Purple

Album : Abandon

Got a black breast Chinese eyes

Got an English brain that's gonna make me wise

Got a long story that I want to tell

To a rhythm that I know so well

Really got a lot of loving that I want to give

Baby I'm a mystery but you know I got to live

I tried another, she didn't want to know

Oh no no no

Take a hold now if you can

Take a lesson from a hard loving man

I'm a long way from where I want to go

Guess I'll stay a while, I really love you so

How's about another sip of all the wine you've got

Take a tip from me and give it here, I'll drink the lot

I'm not a winey, I'm putting on a show

Wah no no no

You really grab me but I gotta move

Before they know I'm here and spread the news

Maybe in while when I move around

I can find a way to pay you back your twenty pounds

Really got a lot of loving that I wan to give

Baby I'm a mystery but you know I got to live

I tried another, she didn't wanna know

Oh no no no
