Sugar Dumpling

Par Desmond Dekker

Album : Desmond Dekker [Disc 1]

What you need is some good old loving

Come on my pretty little sugar dumpling

I tell you that what you need is some good old hugging

So hoink, hoink, hoink What you need is some good old loving

Come on my pretty little sugar dumpling

I tell you that what you need is some good old hugging

Sounds that hoink, hoink, hoink What can see no lie

So bury from deeper(?), you break down and cry

You cannot hide from the truth

It makes some sad, it makes some mad I said girl what you need is some good old loving

Come on my pretty little sugar dumpling

I tell you girl what you need is some good old kissing

Sounds that hoink, hoink, hoink What can see no lie

There is no need for you to sit and cry

Cannot hide from the truth

It makes some sad, it makes some mad I said baby what you need is some good old loving

Come on my pretty little sugar dumpling

I tell you gal what you need is some good old kissing

Sounds that hoink, hoink, hoink I tell you darling what you need is some good old loving

Come on my pretty little sugar dumpling

I tell you son what you need is some good old kissing

So hoink, hoink, hoink
