In The Heat Of The Night

Par Diamond Head

Album : Borrowed Time (2011 Remastered)

Steely eyes of a silvery people
Walk behind me, with evil intent
Up to the tower, I stand alone
Stripped of rank before them I'm sent

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

Before long, behind adamantine doors
I taste of the wine of their joy
Through delirium of a tortured mind
Her face gave me strength to this day.

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

In the heat of the night

But love deceived me, and in my despair

I recalled the ring once again

Born of Sorrow my cunning revives me

And I took them with me enchained

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

What befalls us in the heat of the night?

In the heat of the night
