I Will Not Break

Par Disturbed

Album : Disturbed Essentials

Uh-uh

Uh-uh

Why do I feel like a criminal?

What the hell happened to me? (Ha-happened to me)

I must've fallen down a thousand times

Why am I like this? There's no way to hide this from anyone

It was anything but typical

How it all happened to me (ha-happened to me)

I can't believe that I could be so blind, I had to find it

Now I am reminded of everything

I already know your name

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

Time is ticking away, ticking away

If I can leave the past behind that's been crippling me, sickening me

I will not break

Why am I acting like an animal?

What the hell happened to me? (Ha-happened to me)

I've had enough of feeling terrified

Now I'm deciding that I won't be hiding from anyone

The change was far beyond physical

When it all happened to me (ha-happened to me)

I even contemplated suicide

And though I am haunted, I will not be taunted by anyone

I already know your name

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

Time is ticking away, ticking away

If I can leave the past behind that's been crippling me, sickening me

I will not break

I will not break

I will not break

I will not break

I will not break

I will not break

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

Time is ticking away (ticking away)

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

I will not break this time

I know that vengeance will at last be mine

Time is ticking away, ticking away

If I can leave the past behind that's been crippling me, sickening me

I will not break

Uh-uh

I will not break
