Sunlight

Par DJ Sammy

Album : Ministry of Sound: Clubber's Guide Summer 2003

Sunlight...

I'm drifting away somehow

By the presense of the morning sun

I'm falling into the night

As I can see you shining bright (shining bright...)

Sunlight...

I'm drifting away somehow

By the presense of the morning sun (morning sun...)

I'm falling into the night

As I can see you shining bright (shining bright...)

I'm drifting away somehow

By the presense of the morning sun (morning sun...)

I'm falling into the night

As I can see you shining bright

Sunlight...

Sunlight...

I'm drifting away somehow (I'm drifting away)

By the presense of the morning sun

I'm falling into the night (I'm falling into...)

As I can see you shining bright

Sunlight

There's nothing like your warm embrace

It feels so right

Shining on your sculptured face

Sunlight

There's nothing like your warm embrace

It feels so right

Shining on your sculptured face

(Shining on your sculptured face)

Sunlight

There's nothing like your warm embrace

It feels so right

Shining on your sculptured face

Sunlight

There's nothing like your warm embrace

It feels so right

Shining on your sculptured face

Sunlight.
