BREAK OF DAWN

Par Do As Infinity

Album : Do As Infinity "ETERNAL FLAME" ?10th Anniversary? in Nippon Budokan (LIVE Sound Edition)

Gathered around a fire, on the beach

One night in June, yeah

Talking of future, past and love affairs

Under moonlight, drinking beer

Waiting for sunlight, drinking beer

As fire turned to ashes, a man came

Asking for directions, yeah

He wanted to know the way to a promise land

No one knew the way, to the bright side

No one knew the way, to the light side

Accidentally pointed one way, towards horizon

And he started walking slowly down the shoreline

Ooh, break of dawn, we were wandering aimless in the darkness

Ooh, break of dawn, we were roaming

Wasted in the grayness

Ended up in the right place? No one knows

Gathered around a fire, on the beach

One night in June, yeah

Talking of future, past and love affairs

Under moonlight, drinking beer

Waiting for sunlight, drinking beer

Did we take the right way? Drinking beer

It happened break of dawn, drinking beer
