Good Game

Par Dominic Fike

Album : Coffee & Chill

Well, don't you become your daddy

Boy, you show so much promise

It's okay to be unhappy

With all this

What's it like to be you?

Do you see that way

Do you remember my name?

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

Boy, you know you're my favorite

Just like me in my day, but

You got all your priorities mixed up

At least you're not David, yeah

I'm glad you got out of Naples

What's it like being famous?

Do you remember my name, huh?

Or do you see a stranger when you look at my face?

'Cause sometimes, I wanna save you from everything

Like your problems and the dangers of everyday life

It's impossible to say what you're gonna be

But if you're gonna become someone

Well, don't you become your daddy

Boy, you show so much promise

It's okay to be unhappy (do you remember my name?)

With all this (do you see me that way?)

(Do you remember my name?)

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

I wanna, I wanna, to be just like you

I wanna...
