I Am What I Am

Par Doro

Album : World Gone Wild : CD 1 Force Majeure

Some choose to remember

Some choose to forget

Some fall to pieces

When they lose their heads

I choose to get lucky

Don't choose to regret

I'll take my chances

Only I know best

When it all gets down to me

When it all gets down to me

'Cause I am what I am

And no one's gonna tell me where or when

'Cause I am what I am

And no one's gonna break me down again

I hate to be lonely

I can't pretend

Don't need no phonies

Tryin' to be my friends

Don't care about danger

I can take the fall

Everyone's a stranger

'Til just one stands tall

When it all comes down to me

When it all comes down to me

'Cause I am what I am

And nobody's gonna tell me where or when

'Cause I am what I am

Nothing's gonna break me down again

I can hear the devil calling, calling

I can hear him calling me

But I don't do nothing I don't believe

When it all comes down to me

When it all gets down to me

'Cause I am what I am

And no one's gonna tell me where or when

'Cause I am what I am

And nothing's gonna break me down again

No, nothing's gonna break me down again
