Valley of Dreams

Par Dr. Sin

Album : Dr. Sin

"We can make the rules, break them anytime, oh yeah"

Last night a dream stole me away from reality

Kind of shook me up

Left me lying, shaking in a cold sweat

But like the moth of proverbs

I was drawn into the flame

So afraid to wake up

And find myself insane

Why don't you slip away with me to this place I've found

But watch the road you take

'cause heaven's just a step away from hell

We can make the rules break them anytime

in the valley of dreams

We'll commit the perfect crime

We can make the rules break them anytime

in the valley of dreams

We'll commit the perfect crime

We will make the rules

Break them anytime

in the valley of dreams

We'll commit the perfect crime

Oh oh welcome to the valley of dreams

Welcome to the valley of dreams

Welcome to the valley of dreams
