Open Your Eyes

Par Dreams So Real

Album : Rough Night in Jericho

It's in the way that she smiles

It's in the way that she stops and waits a while

Even though she's involved

She'll never cry about why the world revolves

Today and every day

She knows she's got a piece of my heart

She sees reality

In this world you learn

You can't be cool if you want to burn

Na na na yeah

Na na na yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes

I see the truth in a tear

Live a life in a fraction of a year

Then it all falls apart

Spoken words for a slightly broken heart

She comes like beating drums

To quote the words of the poetry god

'Unchanged, the song remains the same.'

Even now there is a lesson to be learned somehow

Na na na yeah

Na na na yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes

It's in the way that she smiles

It's in the way that she stops and waits a while

Even though she's involved

She'll never cry about why the world revolves

Today and every day

She knows she's got a piece of my heart

She sees reality

In this world you learn

You can't be cool if you want to burn

Na na na yeah

Na na na yeah yeah yeah yeah

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes

Na na na yeah

Na na na yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes

Na na na yeah

Na na na yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Na na na yeah

Open your eyes
