Rainbow Wings

Par Eagle-Eye Cherry

Album : Desireless

Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies, don't sell your soul

I met the devil in disguise

With his rainbow wings and a pack of lies

I had my suspicions but they were ignored

Far away the angel cries

How far away the angel sings?

Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies, don't sell your soul

I watched him preach from the book of greed

With promises of glory and how we'll succeed

I had my suspicions but they were ignored

Far away the angel cries

How far away the angel sings?

Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies, don't sell your soul

Far away the angel cries

How far away the angel sings?

Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies, don't sell your soul
