Wasted Time

Par Eagles

Album : Eagles Essentials

Well baby, there you stand

With your little head down in your hand

Oh my God, you can't believe it's happening again

Your baby's gone and you're all alone

And it looks like the end

Back out on the street

And you're trying to remember, oh

How do you start it over

You don't know if you can

You don't care much for a stranger's touch

But you can't hold your man

You never thought you'd be alone

This far down the line

But I know what's been on your mind

You're afraid it's all been wasted time

The autumn leaves have got you thinking
About the first time that you fell, fell
You didn't love the boy too much
No, no you just loved the boy too well, yeah

So you live from day to day
And you dream about tomorrow
And the hours go by like minutes
And the shadows come to stay
So you take a little something to make them go away

And I could have done so many things, baby
If I could only stop my mind
From wondering what I left behind
And from worrying about this wasted time

The love has come and gone
The years keep rushing on
I remember what you told me
Before you went out on your own
Sometimes to keep it together
You got to leave it alone

So you can get on with your search, baby
And I can get on with mine
Maybe someday we will find
That it wasn't really wasted time
