Pictures on My Wall

Par Echo & the Bunnymen

Album : Echo & The Bunnymen

Can you hear it?

The sound of something burning

Something changing

On the merry-go-round tonight

The pictures on my wall

Are about to swing and fall

Love it all

Love it all

Ooh, we should have

Should have got it right

Ooh, we should have

Should have got it right tonight

Can you hear it

The sound of someone thinking

Heart beating

On the merry-go-round tonight

The pictures on my wall

Are about to swing and fall

Love it all

Love it all

Ooh, we should have

Should have got it right

Ooh, we should have

Should have got it right tonight

People come

I count every one

Faces burning, hearts beating

Nowhere left for us to run

The pictures on my wall

Are about to swing and fall

Love it all

Love it all
