Adios, Lorena

Par Eddie From Ohio

Album : This Is Me

I don't know what just happened there
I guess all in love and war is fair
But I caught you with that wicked smile
You touched me on the arm you see
Once again you get the best of me
And I guess you hadn't done that in a while
I remember when we were new,
I heard and saw what I wanted to
And love was dangerous and heady
And now you say you're goin'
Well I might be a little more heartbroken
If you weren't pretty much half gone already

It was uncomfortable when we met again

I said my God how long has it been

You just kissed me on both cheeks

You said how long, how long let's see

I said you look the same to me

You said 137 weeks

I said, huh imagine that

And you laughed that high-pitched laugh

And it scared away all the birds

I guess they senses the violence in you

We sat in awkward silence

And as usual I filled it up with words

Adios, Lorena, there's a bus at 7: 30

If you hurry you can make it, it's bound for Kansas City

If you listen to the heartland, hear the Heartland sign

Adios, Lorena, Lorena goodbye

You said you know who we were like Lennon and McCartney,

Tina and Ike

Two peas in a pod, two spoons in cup

I said your analogy is apropos,

Ike got his when he broke parole

And the Beatles, well they just broke up

As I sat there listening to your pleas

It seemed a little ironic to me

And I thought, well, maybe I could

Then I fixed you with a wicked smile

Said no hadn't said that in a while

And I'll be damned if it didn't feel good

Adios, Lorena, there's a bus at 7: 30

If you hurry you can make it, it's bound for some big city

If you listen to the heartland, hear the Heartland sign

Adios, Lorena, Lorena goodbye
