Too Young To Understand

Par Eek-A-Mouse

Album : Wa-Do-Dem

Where is my daddy?

Where is my daddy gone?

I want to know

I was too young to understand that my mother

Struggled and really grow me without a man

I want to know why

Hunger and pain, all of those thing we had really suffered (Yeah)

Before that man run away and left us to bawl

Oh mommy, mommy, mommy

Oh mommy, where is my daddy?

I wanna know, is he dead or alive?

From the day I was born, I've never seen the face of my daddy

I really-really wanna know who is my daddy

Well, well

It has now been twenty years

Mommy have shed many tears

Pain and cold, all of those things she had been through

Woah-oy, woah-oy, my father, he was not true

Well, well

Mommy, my mommy, she really a try

A tell me, please tell me if my daddy's died

Woah-oy, I wanna know

Mommy-mommy, I wanna really know

Where is my daddy gone?

Well, where is my daddy?

Is he dead or alive?

I want to know now, I really wanna know

Well-well, where is my daddy gone?

Where-where is my daddy gone?

Mommy-mommy, mommy-mommy-mommy

Daddy-daddy, daddy-daddy-daddy

Well-well

Mommy-mommy, I want to know

Where is my daddy gone?

I really wanna know, where is my daddy gone?

Well-well

Well-well, we are suffering for long

My mommy and me are suffering so long

Where-where is my daddy, mommy? (Woah-oy)
