Once I have overcome

This war

My skulls come quietly

This demise

There's a little light

In my time

One emotion to find

These bad minds

Won't know when they fade

There's no better time to realize that they

Curved you straight out of sound

Frozen in your own home

I'm too weak to leave

Could you control yourself?

Oh lord, I know this

Lift me up and free

So tell me

What did I feel?

Unknown forces chain commandment

Overdressed in sundress

Dragging my limbs

Dragging my eyes

You're my remedy

Parapet

When the night conceals me

More than I need

So why?

I come to be more prepared

I was a virgin

As they lead me

River ferries

I'm alone with you

This includes

The yawn

The restraining

Grave response

Withstanding

Unsolved

I was lost

And aimed

Astray

These chains will split

Without their will

Promise your will

Take all your will

So I may sit
