Destroyer

Par Emily Brimlow

Album : Coffee & Chill

Filled up my head with

Ruby red-stained paranoia

Isn't it strange how good

It feels to be brought to a boil?

Could you leave the light on?

I ain't never been inside this room before

I know I come off headstrong

Really, I'm just dead wrong

To assume I'm yours

Too scared to admit

That I was never really there

Filled up my head with

Ruby red-stained paranoia

Isn't it strange how good

It feels to be brought to a boil?

Cutthroat and loyal

Walking this tightrope

I wanna know how good it feels

To eat you up and destroy ya

We've been turning lukewarm

Better to be chewed up

Than spit out, I guess

Never saw the black swan

Should've put my shoes on

But I settled in

Was I born a raging bird

Too afraid to ever touch the sky?

Filled up my head with

Ruby red-stained paranoia

Isn't it strange how good

It feels to be brought to a boil?

Cutthroat and loyal

Walking this tightrope

I wanna know how good it feels

To eat you up and destroy ya

I wanna know how good it feels

To eat you up and destroy ya

Cutthroat and loyal

Walking this tightrope

I wanna know how good it feels

To eat you up and destroy ya
