Brighter

Par Enshine

Album : Brighter (Single)

Will daylight come

When my life will end?

All around the storm

All beyond the grey

Serenity called me

In a silent haze

Following the glow

I feel the heat of the divine flame

I can see the other shore

As my reason seems to fade

I can touch the amber clouds

As I lead my soul

To the shining solstice

As I lead my soul (as I lead my soul...)

To the winter sunrays

Life ends in a brighter world
