07 - I'm Finding You

Par Eric Johnson

Album : Souvenir

Highways stretch into the night

One way leading to your light

Sooner or later don't you know

Sooner or later I'm finding you

Oh I'm finding you

What am I supposed to do right now?

Till I'm finding you...

You've got mystery inside

For this silhouette of mine

Soon when I find you, I will see

Yes, when I find you, waiting for me.

Oh I'm finding you

What am I supposed to do right now?

Till I'm finding you.

Highway stretch into the night

One way leading to your light

Sooner or later, don't you know

Sooner or later, I'm finding you.

Oh I'm finding you.

Now I know what I will do right now

I'll be finding you.

Sooner or later don't you know

Sooner or later I will find you
