Blood

Par Exhibitionist

Album : Let Go Of Love - EP

I get it wrong most of the time

My house feels hot, stays unoccupied

Try keeping it together

With a mention to be kind

This a mistress said to me

I'm fine but ain't hard to hide

Don't even tell me you're done

I can't stop fucking up

Maybe it's just in my blood

I know I've got all I need

Only thoughts give me peace

But I miss your kiss, I miss your touch

Don't even tell me you're done

I can't stop fucking up

Maybe it's just in my blood

Maybe it's just in my

Maybe it's just in my

If I carry on this way

You say I'll be solo for life

I'll put my trust in me before

Any man who needs a wife

I didn't try, I never try

Just like wasting your time

I'll let go of love, before these

Bones get too damn high

Don't even tell me you're done

I can't stop fucking up

Maybe it's just in my blood

I know I've got all I need
