Impact Is Imminent

Par Exodus

Album : Impact Is Imminent (TOCP-6445)

You wouldn't take a taxi

You said you couldn't stay

You drink and drink and drive

Almost every day

Your life speeds through your mind

Faster than you drive

Living on a shoestring

All your fucking life

Your friends say you need help

You tell them that you're fine

As you tip the bottle

And swallow some cheap wine

You're a living time bomb

Waiting to explode

You'll just be a statistic

When you're dead and cold!

Every time you drink and drive
You always think that you'll survive
Till your car is crushed and bent
Impact is imminent
Sirens fill the streets aloud
It always draws the biggest crowd
They peel your body off cement

Impact is imminent!

The daily obituaries reveal
More and more fools climbed behind the wheel
Thinking they were sober enough to drive
They didn't know they'd never come back alive
A bad case of double vision
Led straight onto a head-on collision
Passed out and crossed the double line
How can anyone be so asinine?
Blind drunk and hauling ass
He got airborne off an overpass
He never knew he left the ground
Like a warhead target bound
You can't correct your fatal mistake
When you're the guest of honor at your own wake
Thought he could fly till he hit cement

Impact is imminent!

Drunken time bombs set to detonate

When happy hour's over they're off to celebrate

Their vision's but a blur, they barely see the road

Been drinking for so long they're starting to erode

A fucking drunken lush climbs into his car

Kills you in an instant coming from the bar

An alcoholic bum hits you from behind

A child and his mother run down in their prime!
